DISABILITY AND INCLUSION: VOLUNTEERING IN SOUTH AFRICA

Monday 7 December 2015

12.30-1.30pm

Room 1G06

Dalhousie Building

University of Dundee

Bring your lunch and join us for a TCELT and SDHI lunchtime seminar. Jean Cathro, the founder of Crossing Countries, returns to the University of Dundee to give a presentation on her recently established social enterprise. Crossing Countries provides a unique, individualised opportunity for disabled and non-disabled people to volunteer abroad together.

Crossing Countries' tag line 'Challenging Boundaries, Changing lives' epitomises their undertaking. They seek to raise awareness of everyone's value to society and to empower people to be more than they thought they could be.

This seminar will be of particular interest to disabled and non-disabled students keen to explore volunteer opportunities for summer 2016 as well as academics and practitioners involved with disability and inclusion.

ALL WELCOME
